

Exclusive

A luxury awning that has been created for caravanners who appreciate the very latest in modern awning design and technology. During the creation of this significant new model Dorema have used a special all season heavy quality awning material, this high quality material is capable of withstanding the punishing task of permanent site caravanning, being easy to clean, tough, and completely waterproof. This exciting new development in awning material is ideally suited to campers who require that extra special quality that will quite easily cope with the demands of a typical British summer.
